PRELUDE: Wer nur den lieben Gott lässt walten Helmut Walcha
Brenda Portman, organist

SILENT PRAYER OF PREPARATION:

O living and loving God, prepare our hearts for what You have for us this morning. Give us ears to hear Your good news, hearts to receive it, minds to comprehend it and the faith to live it. We offer ourselves in worship and praise. Amen.

*CALL TO WORSHIP: (based on Psalm 1)
Happy are those who follow the ways of the Lord.
God's ways are just and merciful.
Those who follow God's ways, prosper in all that they do.
They are nourished by God, as trees planted by the water.
Come, let us open our hearts to God's compassionate love.
Let us celebrate God's mercy, justice, and love.

*HYMN: "Love Divine, All Love's Excelling" UMH #384

*OPENING PRAYER:
God of unspeakable love, we praise You for the holy beauty which awakens our worship, and takes us from dullness to wonder, from timidity to trust, and from human ignorance to the divine light of Christ. Strengthen us to set aside our own agendas and listen for You to speak. Empty us of our selfish thoughts and desires and fill us with the perfect love of Jesus, who is the Christ. Amen.

kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

SERMON: Attitudes That Will Change Your Life: Compassion
Rev. Dr. Cathy Johns

Loving our neighbor involves:

Abandoning _____. (Luke 10:25-29)

Extending mercy to those that God _____. (Luke 10:33-37)

PRAYER OF CONFESSION, WORDS OF ASSURANCE
(posted on The First Thousand Years)

My Lord God,
I confess that I am the priest and the Levite.

Not only did I walk past, I walked away.
I was too busy, too frightened, my heart was too cold.
In my own abundance,
I was too poor in spirit to bear the cost.
In my own comfort,
I was too complacent to suffer any inconvenience.

It was the Samaritan,
a man despised and without pride of position or parentage,
who was faithful and loving and who gave of himself sacrificially.

Father God, in Your mercy, say that it is not too late for me.
Another may have borne the burden,
but I can go to the inn and sit with the traveler while he heals.
I can bathe his wounds and feed him and lighten his spirit until the Good One returns.
Grant me the grace to do that little service with a grateful heart;
please stand with me so that I will not walk away
and shun the greater service the next time.

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, the sinner. Amen.

The Lord is slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. In the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Thanks be to God!

PRAYER

Almighty One, anoint able rulers and prophets to heal ancient prejudices and to foster hospitality among people, that all humanity may be led into the ways of justice and peace.

Loving One, expand your gift of freedom throughout the world and inspire all people everywhere to accept Your call to love our neighbor as ourselves.

Compassionate One, let this community be filled with love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control, that we may be a blessing among all with whom we live.

We offer these prayers in the name of Jesus, the Lord of love,
Amen.
