First Friday Nitters March 1

The Evolution of Union Terminal

Barbara Jennings, Docent, Cincinnati Museum Center

After two years of intense restoration, Union Terminal re-opened in late November 2018 and we thought this would be a great time to take a virtual tour of this iconic deco masterpiece. The original construction began in the 1930's, just as the country ushered in the Depression. Today this beautiful passenger station holds the Cincinnati Museum Center and is a multi-museum complex. Barbara Jennings, a docent with the Museum Center, will lead us through this iconic building and explore its evolution.

PERSONAL STORY OF AMAZING GRACE, Jessica Scheibelhut

Last December Jessica Scheibelhut was a normal, happy, 68 year old woman, a mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. She worked as a registered nurse who was accustomed to helping others. On December 16, 2017 Jessica had a catastrophic accident that altered everything. She became someone whose “normal” was about to change. She became one who could not use her legs and was told she would probably never walk again. But through it all, God was with her. This is her story.

HUMAN TRAFFICKING AWARENESS, Ronda Deel

What is human trafficking? Where is it happening? What can we do about it? What is the Methodist Church doing about it? Let's dispel some myths about this modern day slavery, get clear definitions, learn how to recognize some signs, gain some understanding of the needs of victims, and find out some simple actions that we can take to help put an end to it. Ronda Deel has been involved with this issue for many years and has presented on this subject on a national basis. Join us on March 28th in the Little Theatre.

A FEW GOOD MEN & A MEAL

March 19

On Tuesday, March 19, 2019, enjoy the company of men from the church over dinner at Bob Evan's (8057 Montgomery Road) at 7:00pm. This group is open to all men, meets each month, and alternates between lunch and dinner at various local restaurants.

If you would like to experience the comradery, please contact Dennis Wilson by Monday, March 18th so the restaurant knows how many are coming. You can reach Dennis at dswilson@fioptics.com or 513-232-5211.
