New Year, Next Step

In January of this year, I stepped into a new role at HPCUMC as the Pastor of Mission and Outreach. Over the last year, I have been energized at the opportunity to engage with and serve alongside multiple generations at Hyde Park as we put our faith into action locally, nationally, and globally.

Pastor
Kate Smith

As you step into this next year, I invite you to take the next step in faith if you are not already serving. There are many ways and opportunities to serve in meaningful ways that correspond to your gifts, talents, and passions. Whether you find yourself wanting to focus on relationships, on the front lines, or serve behind the scenes – there is a place for YOU! Serving is a great way to make a big church feel smaller by building relationships with people you serve alongside.

While the list of ways to support ministry goes on and on – here are some highlights of areas that need your support:

- Being a friendly visitor to a home bound member and visit 1-2 times a month
- Take communion to a home bound member – offered 3 times/year
- Be on the program committee to plan speakers, entertainment, and local trips for the 2020-2021 Senior Adult Ministry
- Share the Good News with youth at the Hamilton Juvenile Detention Center on Tuesday or Wednesday evenings – it is offered weekly and can serve monthly
- Prepare and serve a meal to our neighbors at Madisonville Education Center on the 4th Monday of every month
- Tutor a 5th grade student at Rothenberg in writing and reading weekly on Tuesday or Thursday (9:20-10:10a or 1:10-2:00p)
- Be part of the 25th house build for the Shalom Coalition starting in the Spring of 2020 – no experience required and building days are during the week and on Saturdays

If any of these opportunities spark your interest, I would love to have a conversation with you to share more details about how to get connected! Please reach out to me at ksmith@hpcumc.org or on Sunday mornings!

As you step into this new year, perhaps God is calling you to something new!

Soul Builders

Sunday Morning, 11:00am-12:00pm, Room 205

In Christ in Crisis: Why We Need to Reclaim Jesus, released in September 2019, Jim Wallis argues that our cultural and political crises stem, in part, from how the American church has become disconnected from the teachings of Jesus Christ.

10-session study starts January 5. Pick up a copy of the book from your favorite seller, and receive a copy of the 25-page study guide at the first class. Join us for lively and respectful discussions of challenging issues. Everyone is welcome! Questions? Contact Ronda Deel at rodeel@fuse.net.

FaithWeavers

Sunday Morning 9:30am-10:30am Room 205

Enter the World of the New Testament. Professors N. T. Wright and Michael F. Bird will guide you through how to read the New Testament, the world of Jesus and the early church, deep studies on both Jesus and the Apostle Paul, lectures on every book of the New Testament, as well as how to live the story of the New Testament today.

In addition to numerous studio lectures, on-location sessions, filmed around the world, will immerse you into the world of the New Testament.

PASTOR DOUG'S STUDY

Tuesday Morning Social Hall-10:00 am-11:30am

Book Study: Cost of Discipleship

Dietrich Bonhoeffer, one of the most important theologians of the twentieth century, illuminates the relationship between ourselves and the teachings of Jesus.

What can the call to discipleship, the adherence to the word of Jesus, mean today to the businessman, the soldier, the laborer, or the aristocrat? What did Jesus mean to say to us? What is his will for us today? Drawing on the Sermon on the Mount, Dietrich Bonhoeffer answers these timeless questions by providing an influential reading of the dichotomy between "cheap grace" and "costly grace." "Cheap grace," Bonhoeffer wrote, "is the grace we bestow on ourselves...grace without discipleship...Costly grace is the gospel which must be sought again and again. It is costly because it costs a man his life, and it is grace because it gives a man the only true life."

Everyone is welcome! Join us when you can, miss when you must.

Questions, please contact Pastor Doug Johns at djohns@hpcumc.org or 979-8195.

2019 CHARITABLE DONATIONS

The IRS has strict rules governing the tax year in which charitable donations can be deducted. A donation mailed to the church with a postmark on or before December 31, 2019, will be recorded as a 2019 donation. A donation postmarked after January 1, 2020 will be treated as a 2020 donation even if the check is dated earlier.

Don't miss the opportunity to receive tax benefits and the satisfaction of supporting the mission and ministry of HPCUMC!
