

IN-PERSON WORSHIP CANCELLED

Out of an abundance of caution, and due to the occurrence of several clergy and church staff testing positive for COVID-19, the decision has been made to return to On-Line Worship Only until November 22, 2020.

LISTEN TO 9:30 AM SUNDAY WORSHIP THROUGH YOUR TELEPHONE

For those unable to view the 9:30 am worship on-line, we now offer PhoneLiveStreaming. You can use this service in several different ways:

1. Call 513-472-8621 by 9:30 am on Sunday morning and listen to the service.
2. Call 513-472-8621 and press "1" to set it up so you will be called every Sunday morning at 9:30 am and automatically be connected to the service.
3. Call 513-472-8621 when it is convenient so you can listen to the most recent service in case you missed it, as the last one is archived.

Sunday, November 1, 2020 is All Saints Day.

At both the 9:30 and 11:00 am services we will honor our love ones who have triumphantly gone to God's eternal glory this past year.

RECENT DEATHS: *May our beloved rest in the grace and peace of our Lord.
Clyde Stewart on October 2, 2020*

LETTER FROM BETTY STEWART TO CLYDE

On the evening of Clyde's death, Betty sat down and wrote Clyde a letter, her husband of 40 years, and Betty graciously agreed to have it published in this newsletter. I am very grateful and humbled to be permitted to share their love story with each of you.

Thank you for being my husband, and the love of my life. You always put my needs first in our lives together and made me feel so loved and cherished. I will always remember how we met at the Singles Square Dance, although that was not our first meeting. We had known each other for years as members of St. John's United Church of Christ in Delhi—so when we met at the dance lessons I felt that I could trust you.

I'll remember your relentless pursuit of me, and my resistance until I gave in. We danced together every Tuesday night for a year and became more serious about each other. When I found out that you were also a member of Hyde Park Community United Methodist Church that sealed the deal for me. I suggested we get married, and then you asked me if I would marry you, and a year after that we were married. No one's wedding pictures were ever like ours, with your head bandaged from an ear infection—but you didn't complain and we went on with our plans.

I will always remember the trips that we took together, and your willingness to take me anywhere that I wanted to go for as long as you could. I'll remember day and night drives to see the lights and decorations for Halloween and Christmas, fall visits to the farms in Lebanon, the Amish areas in Ohio and Pennsylvania, and Brown County, Indiana; and our longer trip to South Dakota and Yellowstone. We always had each other and took care of each other with love.

I will miss being with you all day after you retired, and after my stroke, and we tried to fill those days with fun. I'll miss your beautiful blue eyes and the warmth of your hugs, and the ways you destroyed the English language and the way you put up with my corrections of your grammar. We were always together. When I could no longer drive you were willing to take me to meet my friends for lunch and you became their friend, too. Thank you for becoming friends with Leonard. I know that you were good for each other.

I will always cherish the many crafts that you made—the wood burnings, wood scape pictures, puzzles, and latch hook tree skirts. You were a man of simple tastes and quiet joy, but you lavishly showed your love for me. The last words you said to me were, "See you later," as we both thought that you would be back home. So, I'll see you later my love, and I'll miss you. As we signed our cards to each other, "Always and Forever."

Love, Betty
